

STANDARD FORMAT OF THE INTERNSHIP REPORT

INTERNSHIP REPORT

- Reflects your ‘overall’ experience of the internship duration. An internship report is a document that summarises your internship experience with a company and any ongoing considerations you might wish to recommend.
- After you have completed an internship project or an internship program, the department requires you to submit an internship training report detailing your work experience. The report would help them understand the benefits you received by interning and how they can improve their program for future students.
- In your report on your internship experience, you are required to mention the skills you developed during the training period and specify how you used these skills in the position and for the tasks that the company assigned to you. Additionally, you can evaluate their importance for future work opportunities

Chapters

- Chapter 1: Overview of the Organization

Give a brief overview of the company's history, including who founded it, for what purpose and when, future vision and competencies. This is also the place to mention the company's mission statement and its regular business activities and about major competitors in the market.

- Chapter 2: Work Responsibilities during the Internship

Mention your internship position within the company and explain the specific tasks that the company staff assigned to you daily. You can discuss the skills you learned as a result and the experiences that helped you to develop professionally. You are also required to mention any projects you completed on your own or as part of a team. This section must include a weekly overview of internship activities.

This is an important part of your report. Your activities during the period of internship. Your job responsibility, in how many departments you were placed, what have you learned in those departments etc. including Duration of internship, Departments assigned and List of activities performed and how have you performed

- Chapter 3: Skills and Experiences – What have I learnt

It is important to include specific skills you developed during the course of your internship. Explain how they relate to your educational experiences and your career goals. Detail experiences you received during your internship that helped you to develop professionally and how they would contribute to your future work. You can add suggestions for the department to make the curriculum more robust and industry ready for future batches.

- Chapter 4: Recommendations and Conclusions

Finally, discuss skills that you would like to continue developing or experiences you would like to have as part of your internship. This can help you gain insight into what you would like to find in future internships/placements while also helping the department understand how they can better meet the needs and interests of students and organizations in the future

Internee should concentrate and focus on the quality of recommendations. They should not be unclear, ambitious and general. Your recommendations should be directly relevant to your place of internship and should be implementable for bringing improvement.

Conclude briefly by summarizing your main points of the report.
