Individual Accident Insurance:

This type of policy guards an individual in case of any accidental damage. It covers accidental death, loss of limbs or sight, or other permanent disabilities resulting due to an accident.

Group Accident Insurance:

Group Accident Insurance is taken by employers to get coverage for their employees. Depending on the group size, some insurers also provided a discount on the premium. It is a good incentive/value-added advantage for small organizations as it is available at low cost. However, this is a very basic plan and may offer limited benefits compared to an individual plan.

The different types of Travel Insurance –

1. Domestic Travel Insurance Plan

This policy is designed for customers intending to travel within the contours of the country. A domestic travel insurance policy insulates the policyholder from expenses that may result from treatment of a medical emergency, theft/loss of baggage and other valuables, delays/cancellation of flights, permanent disability, and personal liability (refers to third-party damages inflicted by you while you're on the trip).

2. International Travel Insurance

This policy is designed in keeping with what customers – travelling internationally – would want. Besides the usual coverage offered by its domestic counterpart, an international travel insurance policy safeguards you (policyholder) against risks of a flight hijack, repatriation to India, etc.

3. Medical Travel Insurance

The name is the marker here – with the policy specifically designed to cover expenses emanating from medical emergencies and other healthcare-related concerns. However, the exact set of inclusions and exclusions will vary across insurance providers.

4. Senior Citizen Travel Insurance

Besides the usual advantages of purchasing travel insurance, a policy that is directed at senior citizens (generally) belonging to the age group of 61-70 years) offers additional coverage against dental treatments/procedures as well as cashless hospitalization.

5. Single and Multi-Trip Travel Insurance

As the name suggests, a single-trip travel insurance policy retains its validity through the time you are on a trip. It covers both medical as well as non-medical expenses (such as baggage loss, delays in flights, etc.). Multi-trip travel insurance policy, on the other hand, provides extended coverage (lasting usually a year in most cases) so that frequent flyers don't have to go through the entire process of availing insurance every time they prep for travel.

6. Travel Accident Insurance

The purpose of this insurance is to provide term life and accidental death and dismemberment protection for you and your family. This covers unexpected and sudden losses that occur because of travel or flight accidents. The benefits apply while you are on a trip that is insured or during the coverage period. This type of trip insurance is ideal for frequent world travellers, particularly those who visit risky regions.

7. Medical Evaluation Insurance

This type of plan focuses on covering the cost of evacuations and repatriation. If you are hospitalized while traveling with your family, it may cover the cost of an emergency medical reunion and the return of any minor children home. Some plans may also provide term life and AD&D benefits to protect your family as well as coverage for lost luggage, adventure sports and trip interruptions.

8. Package Travel Insurance

Package plans are customized according to the different needs of various travellers. A typical plan includes coverage for evacuations, luggage problems, medical and dental costs, returning minors home, and trip cancellations, delays and interruptions. Some plans also cover adventure activities, credit card and passport services, identity theft assistance, pet care, pre-existing medical conditions, rental car collisions, roadside assistance and sports equipment.

The different types of Engineering Insurance –

1. Plant All Risk Insurance

This insurance policy is streamlined to cater to loss and unforeseen damages of operational tools. Construction equipment and operational machinery are susceptible to wear and tear due to their exposure to extreme environmental conditions.

2. Machine Breakdown Policy

The Machine Breakdown Policy provides cover losses for sudden or unexpected damage of equipment – especially while they're still in use. Both internal and external damages are covered in the Machine

Breakdown Policy. Some of these internal damages could include lubrication defects, electrical damage, overheating, and the like.

3. Electronic Equipment Policy

This policy covers systems and devices that attract low voltage and power. Therefore, the insurer will be responsible for the cost of replacement or repairs necessary to reinstate the former state of electronic equipment and devices.

4. Contractor's All Risk Cover

It covers contractors and provides financial protection against damage or loss incurred during construction projects. The Contractor's All Risk Cover provides cover against loss or damage to plants and equipment. This policy resonates with our reference to on-site construction uncertainties. It is peculiar to civil engineering projects like buildings, flyovers, airports, and the like.

5. Erection All Risk

This policy offers comprehensive cover by covering risks which may arise during erection or testing period. It gives financial protection to the engineering contracts in the event of any accident.
